After careful consideration of evidence and or own school priorities, during 2016/2017 we spent the money on:

- Continued provision for vulnerable children to have access to "Thrive Support Sessions."
- Continued provision for some children to have additional 1:1, small group teaching sessions to support learning in English and Maths.
- Specific resources for the needs of the pupils.
- Training for staff working with pupils who need specialist teaching/support.
- Continued to provide additional classroom support for those children working below age related expectations.
- Continued to provide additional enrichment opportunities including school trips, forest school, additional sporting opportunities, school visitors.
- Provide extra curricula activities to raise confidence of pupils. E.g. drama club
